New novel about the Korean War: PUBLIC INFORMATION

Written by a sergeant from the 7th Infantry Division, it tells the story of a young soldier who arrives in Korea during combat in 1953 and follows his adventures during a 16 month tour of duty. He becomes a combat correspondent and writer for the Pacific Stars and Stripes, travels widely, associates with a number of indelible characters (which will be familiar to veterans who were there), engages in combat, gets in trouble and even finds love.

The book is carefully researched and includes recently discovered information about the conflict. The characters speak military jargon, including colorful curses, and issues arising from both sides of the 38th Parallel are examined – prison camps, repatriation, activities of the U.N. Forces, the “Army Way,” and leave in Japan. Basically, it’s a coming of age story under harsh circumstances.

Readers have called it “hilarious...moving...poignant.”

The soft cover 380 page book retails for $25.

A special 20% discount is offered to readers of The Graybeard. Visit www.frogworks.com and enter the coupon code “KVET” for the discount. The first 50 pages of the novel are available free there, too. Also available from Amazon.com for download.
