

Korean War Anniversary Information Wanted

60th Anniversary Questions:

1. If both sides knew that the truce took effect at 10 p.m. on 27 July 1953, and they knew it hours in advance, why did they continue fighting right up to the last minute?
2. What happened to any left-over ammunition that the two sides had in Korea once the truce took effect?
3. Did anyone make any attempt to locate and remove land and water mines that were still in place once the truce took effect?

The 60th anniversary of the Korean War armistice is fast approaching. It is a good time for our editorial to start compiling stories for our 2013 60th anniversary special edition. Please let us know where you were when the armistice was signed, what you were doing, what was going on where you were, how you and your buddies/units/enemies/families et al reacted.

Even if you were not in Korea at the time, e.g., you had already completed your stint there, you were a friend of or related to someone who had been there, we welcome your remembrances.

If you have photos, newspaper clips, diary entries, or other documents that supplement your remembrances, they are welcome. We will put everything together for the special edition of The Graybeards that we are working on.

We will also keep track of what celebrations local, state, and national organizations are planning. Let us know what your chapter, community, etc., is planning and we will make every effort to get it into The Graybeards.

Send your material to 60th Anniversary Editor, The Graybeards, 152 Sky View Drive, Rocky Hill, CT 06067.
