Background

The Korea Revisit program was begun by the Ministry of Patriots and Veterans Affairs (MPVA/Seoul) in 1975 for the 25th anniversary of the outbreak of the Korean War to express the Republic of Korea (ROK's) government's gratitude to Korean War veterans and their families also to show them the bountiful results of their sacrifices and devotion.

MPVA's Eligibility Requirements

4. Hospitalization, Evacuation and Trip Cancellation Insurance is required by MPVA for all veterans, companions or veteran representatives. Insurance costs are included in the admin service charge for Korea only.
5. Transportation costs to and from Korea will be borne by each person who participates in the program. The Korean government is now subsidizing air-fare for persons traveling with the group administered by MHT.

INCHON from page 77

This statue is located in the veterans cemetery near Santa Clara, CA. The cemetery is the final resting place of many Korean War veterans. Among the many veterans interred there is Captain Ed Crane of Pittsburg, CA. Ed was the Detachment Commander of the 68th FIS at K-13, near Suwon, Korea, from 1951-53.

Lt. W. P. Bush, parachuted in and was cut down by machine gun fire. He was also a WWII veteran and a graduate of the U.S. Military Academy's Class of 1949.

Amphibious Task Force Commander RADM James Doyle said in his after action report: "...it is my conviction that the successful assault at Inchon could have been accomplished only by U.S. Marines...because of many years of specialized training and [they] had the requisite 'know-how' to execute these plans without training or rehearsal."

Francis Scott Key Park, in the Georgetown section of Washington D.C., is a popular place to visit for veterans and their families. It is located near the entrance to the Key Bridge that leads to Rosslyn, VA. Georgetown contains many buildings dating from the Revolutionary War. It is only a few miles from the frequently visited Korean War Memorial.
