

COVER: The dedication of the memorial to the “Chosin Few” that occurred on Thursday, May 4, 2017 at the National Museum of the Marine Corps at Quantico, VA. The heroism, courage, and sacrifice of those Marines, Soldiers, and Corpsmen during the period of November-December 1950 is now etched in bronze and stone at the Battle Monument. (Photo submitted by Fred Lash, dand-donnlash1@verizon.net)

14

28

50

52

CONTENTS

Business

From the President	3
Thanks for Supporting The Graybeards and the KWVA	6
From the Secretary	7
From the Executive Director	10
Official Membership Application Form	71
Application for Korea & PCFY Revisit Tours	78

Features & Articles

The Russian Truck: Part II	12
Six Sitting Ducks	14
Forgotten soldiers of the Forgotten War	22
Worms and Choppers: Welcome to Korea	45
A tribute to Master Sergeant Richard Roy Pretzer and the Pretzer family	68

Departments

The Editor's Desk	9
Reunion Calendar 2017	11
The Poet's Corner	21
Chapter & Department News	32
Tell America	46
Members in the News	55
Feedback/Return Fire	58
Humor in Korea	73
Welcome Aboard	74
Last Call	75

News & Notes

Online Shopping Available Soon to Honorably Discharged Veterans	11
Pictures in my find	16
Korean War Veterans Association Reunion: Events	18
Korean War Veterans Association Reunion: Registration	20
Where Was I at the End of the War?	23
Korean War MIAs Recently Identified	24
The 2017 KWVA Fundraiser	26
Speakers, Stories, Stoys, and a Stirring Seminar	28
New Washington State Exhibition	44
How Much Can One Person Do for His or Her Country?	49
Bridging Generations: With Heroes of the Forgotten War	50
Revisit Tour: Go!	52
Daniel Hunt receives hero's welcome	54
Gary Marshall was a Korean Defense veteran	56
Me and Frankie Laine	57
Psalm Reader	75