

Romantic

*If you come at four o'clock in the afternoon, then
at three o'clock I shall begin to be happy*

Dear, Korean war veterans

Hello! I am a Pung dong middle school student I'm 13 years old.

My name is Chae-min Kim.

Several days ago I got a message to write a letter to you from NANUM.

So I started to search some articles and I felt that my heart was beating and my eyes were getting wet when I read some stories.

It was almost a shock to me.

I have never imagined a story in which dreadful fear of war lasted until now.

And I was very sad that so many foreign soldiers died and suffered for the sake of the unknown land of Korean.

THANK YOU!

Romantic

*If you come at four o'clock in the afternoon, then
at three o'clock I shall begin to be happy*

during the Korean War.

How sad their families were, losing their beloved sons.

Here are my thanks and gratitude
Without your sacrifice Korea would not be as it is today.

Specially, I would like to mention my grandfather. He survived at that time, came from the north, and lives in Atlanta U.S.

He will be pleased to see this letter.

I also pray that you forget all the bad memories and enjoy your life.

You are much more than a hero to me.

Thank you very much and God bless you.

Sincerely, Chae-min Kim.