

It's me!

Dear Korean war veterans

Hello, I'm a thirteen years old Korean girl named Choi So-hye.

When I heard of Korean war at the first time, I haven't thought that there might be other country's soldiers in our war.

But I have learned that there were other country's soldiers in the war, and I kept thought thankful for them.

Actually for me, war just seems like a legend we learn in books. However, if there were no sacrifices of yours, I might be afraid of daily lives until now, living in danger instead of being a 7th grader in school.

Especially, I do thank you for your kindness with courage that all of you came to us without any hesitate while we only have sand ground without any safety.

With the name of Korea, freedom and family, I really appreciate your braveness to fight against the enemies in the foreign country. All of Korean citizens will never forget your blood and sweat which worked for our freedom and peace.

Now, you're just a grandfather with lots of wrinkles, but you'll be Korea's hero forever.

I feel the sense of responsibility to keep our country strong when I think of your abilities.

Respectful Korean war veterans, you're all real heroes.

Sincerely, Choi So-hye
