

All you need is love

Please always know that I love you more than anything else in the world.

Dear Korean war veterans

Hi! I'm Dan Bee from Dajeon, Republic of Korea. I am a 1st grade student in Tonbag Middle School. To begin with, I am very pleased and honored to express my grateful heart. I never thought that Korean war could give that much influence to you. Now I know that you could never forget the war. Is it true that many people got hurt including close friends and families? I saw one story about a man who died in the age of 18 in this war. The last letter he wrote home was the one that was written to his mom. The letter seemed to tell me how much the man missed his families love, and tried his best to stay brave. I saw some other information that some people entered the war because they were poor and needed food to eat. I felt so sad that soon after reading that news my eyes were full of tears. I kept thinking how awful it would have been.

I have always admired America helping our country whenever we needed help. I felt thankful again when I knew about the war. I especially thank you for your kindness and courage. You all have been really brave to have entered the war and fight. Freedom is not free. I believe it is true. Korea is now a democracy country. In other words, a free country. Do you know why? It's because you bravely fought in the war.

We will make sure you last in Korea's history forever! We will never forget your efforts and sacrifices!

Thank you so much, our soldiers, our heroes!

Laugh  out  loud
