

Look at My Sleepy Eyes!

Dear Korean War Veterans,

Hello I'm Jeong Ungyo.

Today we live under clear sky and peaceful economy of our country.

I think this is thanks to Korean War Veterans who helped South Korea stay from North Korea.

I'm so grateful for this and have a great respect for you all.

I will say thank you when I meet Korean War Veterans.

When the ship Sewol was sinking, the crewmen just run away leaving all passengers in danger even though it was their job to stay there and help those people. Contrary this, all of you Veterans put your lives in great danger to help this country.

I admire your courage and sacrifice and I just hope you all live long happy life.

It is my honor to write a letter to you all.

When I have a chance I will write again.

Thank you.

Sincerely,
Jeong Ungyo.
