

Dear Korean War Veterans

Hello! My name is Kim Sol Min and My English name is Kevin Kim I am sixth grade in elementary school I heard many Korean War veterans sacrificed themselves for South Korea so I am trying to say thank you to you because it was not possible if you were not fight in South Korea I cannot be free or live, eat but fought for us Frankly speaking you doesn't have to fight with North Korea but you save us so I think you are the best hero ever I seen If you don't save us This Korea is gone when war finish but you save us but it is not finish so now The Korea is very good country and it is very comfortable country so many foreign people come to Korea and live and go back to their Country with happy face This is possible because of you so I think you are the best hero I seen so I am really thank you to save our beautiful country and I really want you to visit Korea. I really want to say to every Korean war veterans even the dead people The dead people were so young so I was very sad about they died so only you were the best people so - I want to invite you and I want to show you very beautiful place in Korea and I want to see when you smile with your happy happy face I am really thank you for save South Korean -bye-
