

Life is full of delightful melody

When you look up into the blue sky
You will find a great big smile through the clouds
Smiles are what fill us with delight
And bring us back to our good old days

「On June 25th 1950, North Korea attacked at dawn, so a lot of people fought each other. Up to now we are only divided country in the world. 「My grandfather's elder brother went to the Vietnam War. I think you were in the same case. If someone tell me to go out the war, I can't go
