Dear War Veterans!

Hi I'm Oh sewgyeon.

This place is now a clear sky, warm winds, greenness is in the middle of the spring to go darker.

Not long ago, I heard a story of the Korean War veterans' stories in a documentary called 'the promise of 60 years'.

It was very impressive!

Because of the Korea War veterans' honorable sacrifice, we now can form a remarkable development and rest with an untroubled mind.

"For your tomorrow, we gave our today."
Today that we received from you.

I will always try hard to make tomorrow that can be hope to someone with our today.

I will remember your sacrifice forever. Be healthy.

> Sincerely, Oh Seung Yean.
